

FINANCIAL ADVISORY FIRM OF THE YEAR

McLeod Capital Fund

McLeod Capital Fund is a private real estate lending, investment, and financial advisory firm dedicated to delivering strategic capital solutions to homeowners, real estate investors, developers, and business owners. Established 11 years ago and drawing upon more than 20 years of combined industry experience across residential and commercial real estate, McLeod Capital Fund specialises in structuring customised financing solutions that balance opportunity, flexibility, and sound risk management. With local expertise, nationwide capabilities, and an expanding international reach, the firm serves both U.S. and international clients.

The judges praised McLeod Capital Fund's ability to combine commercial insight with a highly personal approach to capital. Its team takes time to understand the objectives, circumstances and risk profile behind each transaction, allowing it to develop financing strategies that are both practical and responsive. This considered approach supports clients across acquisitions, refinances, cash-out transactions, renovations, developments and investment properties, while maintaining clear communication throughout. By pairing tailored advice with efficient execution and a strong understanding of real estate, the firm demonstrates a commitment to helping clients pursue opportunities, protect value and build long-term financial resilience.
